Head Injuries

Alert #15-02-14

Head injuries are a significant result of accidental injury for individuals with developmental disabilities. Monitoring any injury to the head is important because even what appears to be a minor bump on the head can result in injury to the brain. The neck and spinal cord can also be injured at the same time.

Signs and Symptoms of Head (and Brain) Injury:

- If you see any of the following signs after a head injury, call for immediate medical attention/call 911:
- Loss of consciousness (even if the person appears to act normally after regaining consciousness).
- Change in level of consciousness, unusual drowsiness, or difficult to awaken.
- Head pain or headache, getting worse or not getting better within 4 hours of head injury.
- Individual does not remember head injury event (amnesia).
- Feeling dizzy, falling or staggering, dropping objects, loss of coordination. Inability to move any part of body
- Speaking difficulties including slowing or slurring of speech.
- Blurred or double vision.
- Bleeding from ears or nose, fluid drainage from nose or ears.
- Obvious abnormal behavior, confusion
- Seizure/convulsion
- Vomiting

Head Injuries Alert #15-02-14

Provide First Aid: A-B-C-D

A = Airway: Assess, clear and manage airway as taught in CPR classes, being mindful of proper neck (cervical spine) alignment and immobilization.

B = Breathing: Assess and if necessary assist breathing (mouth-to-mask, bag-valve mask, oxygen supplementation).

C = Circulation: Control bleeding with pressure, being mindful of possibility of skull fracture; bleeding not controlled in 15 minutes should be evaluated by a physician.

D = Disability: Assess level of consciousness (responsiveness to talking, shouting, or pain such as pinching arm).

If your assessment indicates any problem with airway, breathing, circulation, or other disabling condition call 911 (alert emergency medical services), and get the individual immediate medical attention and/or if the person is unconscious or has signs of neck injury, call 911.

Remember the potential for a neck injury, which can occur with a head injury, including the result of a fall from a short distance, such as falling out of bed. Unless their airway is blocked, do not move a person until medical personnel (EMS, nurse or physician) have checked for neck (spinal cord) injury. Support their head in a neutral (in-line) position until help arrives.

Falls Alert #20-02-14

Fall Prevention Starts with You!

- Model good safety habits such as taking your time, holding the hand rail and participating in regular exercise
- Provide the individual's physician with information about falls, medical history or known risk factors (age, medications, seizure disorder, vision)
- Discuss fall prevention and needed supports at team meetings
- Encourage exercise and movement to increase balance and flexibility
- Review a list of the individual's medications with their physician and/or pharmacist as some medication or a combination may contribute to falling
- Provide the proper level of supervision
- Have a positive mindset. Use phrases like "Let's get strong together"
- Use adaptive equipment such as walkers, wheelchairs, gait belts and lifts as ordered
- Encourage the use of eye glasses and other items which will help a person see more clearly
- Have a mobility assessment completed by a professional
- Explore environmental modifications such as grab bars, increased lighting to help maintain safety and independence
- Identify any trip hazards and make sure they are corrected
- Provide Staff Training on safe and healthy work and personal habits
- Visit www.steady.u.ohio.gov for regular updates and to subscribe to Daily Fall prevention tips

Winter Weather Alert #52-11-11

- Avoid going outside without proper clothing including hats and gloves.
- Don't stay outdoors too long in the extreme cold.
- Make sure individuals are well supervised so accidental exposure to extreme temperatures is avoided.
- Understand first aid for Frostbite and Hypothermia so immediate attention can be given in an emergency situation.
- Prepare in advance when conducting outdoor activities and trips. Take along extra clothing, blankets, warm liquids, etc.
- Be very careful with any heating elements. (Space heaters, fireplaces, furnaces, etc.) Assure that all are in good working order before being used for the winter.

Bath Tub Drowning

Alert #36-09-13

- If an individual has a seizure disorder provide 1:1 supervision around any potential water source (bathtubs, swimming pools, beaches, rivers/lakes/ponds,
- If an individual has a seizure disorder etc. Always assure that appropriate medications are given as prescribed.
- Don't run to answer the phone.
- Don't check to see who is at the door.
- Don't leave siblings or unfamiliar caretakers to watch individuals.
- Don't rely on bathtub seats or rings. They create a false sense of security for the parent or caregiver.
- Get all of your supplies (i.e. towels, clothing, hygiene products etc.) ready before entering the bathroom.

Preventing Physical Abuse

Alert #22-7-13

- Screen your employees prior to hiring.
- Check references and any gaps in
- employment. Be sure to follow all back ground check requirements.
- Post numbers to call for help. Make sure everyone (staff, individuals, and families) know who to call to get help.

- Ensure staff are given tools to do their job .Be mindful of staff who are working excessive hours and the impact.
- As a supervisor, do unannounced visits. Welcome family and friends to do the same if agreeable to individual.

Preventing the Flu

Alert #31-10-11

The single best way to protect against the Flu is to get vaccinated each fall.

A person with a developmental disability in Ohio was 31% less likely to have had a Flu vaccination within a year when compared to the national average.

In the '08-'09 report, 38.6% of respondents had a Flu vaccine. Through the Swine Flu epidemic, covered in the '09-'10 survey affirmative responses grew to 41.4%. As we move into another Flu season, we do not want to loose this momentum.

Preventing the Flu

- Avoid close contact. Avoid close contact with people who are sick. When you are sick, keep your distance from others to protect them from getting sick too.
- Stay home when you are sick. If possible, stay home from work, school, and errands when you are sick. You will help prevent others from catching your illness.
- Cover your mouth and nose. Cover your mouth and nose with a tissue when coughing or sneezing. It may prevent those around you from getting sick.
- Clean your hands. Washing your hands often will help protect you from germs.
- Avoid touching your eyes, nose or mouth. Germs are often spread when a person touches something that is contaminated with germs and then touches his or her eyes, nose, or mouth.

If you do not have a personal physician, local Departments of Health often offers flu shots at a reasonable cost.

Preventing the Flu

People at High Risk for Complications From the Flu Include:

- People 65 years and older;*
- People who live in nursing homes and other long-term care facilities that house those with long-term illnesses;*
- Adults and children 6 months and older with chronic heart or lung conditions, including asthma;*
- All children 6 to 23 months of age;*
- People with any condition that can compromise respiratory function or the handling of respiratory secretions (that is, a condition that makes it hard to breathe or swallow, such as brain injury or disease, spinal cord injuries, seizure disorders, or other nerve or muscle disorders.)*

Choking

Alert #18-04-03

Choking Prevention:

- Cut food into small pieces.
- Encourage individuals to chew slowly and completely before swallowing.

Steps to Take if someone is choking:

- Always follow your First Aid training
- If an individual's airway is blocked, have someone call 911 immediately (if another person is unavailable, call 911 yourself) and perform Abdominal Thrust (formerly known as the Heimlich maneuver). This has been extremely successful in dislodging foods.
- If an individual is in a wheelchair or has physical characteristics that make it difficult to do Abdominal Thrust, move the individual to a flat, hard surface to ensure the greatest success. Be ready to initiate quick chest compressions to help unblock airway.
- Even if the Abdominal thrust is successful, immediately notify a health care professional. It is advisable to have the individual physically checked by a health care professional follow

Hot Water Burns

Alert #37-01-13

- Don't run to answer the phone.
- Don't check to see who is at the door.
- Don't leave siblings or unfamiliar caretakers to watch them.
- Don't rely on bathtub seats or rings. They create a false sense of security for the parent or caregiver.
- Get all of your supplies and clothing items ready before entering the bathroom.
- Turn hot water heater thermostat to 120 degrees Fahrenheit or less.
- Install scald resistant faucets, a tempering valve, or a thermostatic mixing valve. (This very simple step is critical to hot water safety and burn prevention).
- Always test the temperature before someone gets in the bathtub or shower. Wait until the tub water is at the depth you want. Test the water with your wrist.
